Folks,

I previously communicated with most of you about a 10k Euro contribution that the US government (EPA, in this case) is obligated to make in advance of a previously agreed, and routine OECD On-Site Evaluation of our GLP program (we have these evaluations, and pay the fee, every 10 years, pursuant to prior agreement). Historically, OPPT and OPP have split the bill here, and I think we agreed some months ago that we should do that this time as well.

The US is supposed to make the contribution in the year preceding the inspection. Our industrial chemicals and pesticides evaluation is scheduled for 2020, so we had been thinking that the funds would be due sometime in 2019. However, it turns out that there is a related medical products evaluation scheduled in 2019 (FDA will be coordinating this), so that accelerates our deadline.

I'll be talking with my management and my division's contract folks on how to get the ball rolling, but just wanted to give everyone a reminder about this obligation, and heads up about the accelerated deadline. Please stay tuned.

Jessica

Dear Dr. Morris,

Please find attached a letter from Bob Diderich concerning the US's contribution to the 2018-2027 GLP On-site Evaluation fund. Also attached is a draft model agreement in Word and the current schedule of evaluations.

If you agree with this model agreement, could you please add the your agency's information to the agreement and send it to me in Word before signing?

Best regards,

Jill
